

A No, his wife died about three days before he did, and they never had any children in my lifetime, and left no child or descendants of any child or children.

Q Will you kindly state what heirs-at-law Taylor A. Spurrier left surviving him that have any interest in this real estate?

A Myself - Myrtlin M. Spurrier. My wife's name is Sadie B. Spurrier; Sterling E. Spurrier and his wife's name is Nellie M. Spurrier. We are the only children and sons of John E. C. Spurrier, a deceased brother of Taylor A. Spurrier, who died before Taylor died.

Then another branch are nieces and nephews of Taylor A. Spurrier: Roland Spurrier, whose wife's name is Beulah Spurrier; Roscoe Spurrier, whose wife is Mary Spurrier; Harvey R. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Effie F. Spurrier; Carrie Bell, widow, Ola Hoke, whose husband's name is LeRoy Hoke; Mora Creager, whose husband's name is Richard Creager, and Leo Toms, widow. They are all adults and are the children of Jacob H. L. Spurrier, a brother to Taylor who predeceased him.

Then there is another branch: Ethel Spurrier Dinterman, whose husband's name is Alvie Dinterman, and Floy Diller Spurrier Filler, widow, all of whom are adults and the only children of Charles F. A. Spurrier, a deceased brother of Taylor, who predeceased him.

Now the fourth branch consists of Coral Spurrier Kling, whose husband's name is Roscoe M. Kling. All of the above named, including myself and my brother and our wives, are all adults and residents of Frederick County, Maryland. In fact, there are no infants in this cause at all, as they are all well advanced in years.

Then the other brothers and sisters of Coral Spurrier Kling are Charles O. Spurrier, whose wife's name is _____ Spurrier. No one seems to know if he is married or not, and when they were last heard from they lived at Murdo, South Dakota. Charles O. Spurrier and all the balance of his brothers and sisters are out in the West excepting Coral Spurrier Kling and her
